

3600 BC

1912 Dates' J-BK

Papyrus was in use as far back as 3600 BC. It was made into rolls from the pressed pith of a species of reeds. The plant is 3 to 10 ft high. The sheets of papyrus seldom exceeded 15 in wide though from 8 to 12 in is very commonly met with. One roll measured 144 feet in length.

3600 BC

Bronze made in southeastern Asia.

3,600 B.C.

Cylindrical seals begin to be used as marks of identification in near East.

3600 BC Wilden

Civilization in Sumeria

3600 BC

Cylinder seals begin to be used as marks of identification in near East.

c 3600 BC

Egyptians had an alphabet of 24 letters.

3600BC

Totation dates to 3600BC and punishment for farmers who did not work hard enough was presented in early laws 1900BC